special to the Indianapolis Journal. VALPARAISO, Ind., Jan. 17 .- A sensation was created here to-day over the recalling of the grand jury to investigate the story of Frank Sprencil, chief witness in the supposed Davidson murder case.

Davidson's dead body was found on Dec. 20 near the Napoleon-street crossing, in this city, on the Pennsylvania road, where Sprencil was employed as night watchman. After four days' inquiry by the coroner Sprencil came forward and told that he and Greenville, O., to connect the lines of saw Roy Sowards, Michael Curtin and Bob Fleming dragging the body of the dead man about the vicinity, and even that they borrowed a shovel of him to gather up the blood-stained snow and earth which was found some distance away. Later the three boys were indicted by the grand jury for

Suit Over the Nixon Paper Mill Property Decided at Richmond.

SMALL DAMAGE VERDICT.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. RICHMOND, Ind., Jan. 17 .- For three weeks past there has been on trial in the Circuit Court the case of the C., R. & M Rallroad vs. White. It grew out of the construction of the railroad across the property of the Nixon paper mill, which property is in the name of Mrs. Louise White. When the appraisement for damages was returned by the men appointed by the court, the amount was not satisfactory to Mrs. White and she filed exceptions to it and the matter then went to trial. The case was very hard fought. It was claimed by Mrs. White that the paper mill property, as an entirety, previous to the construction of the railroad, was worth $55,000. After the road was built the injurious effects were such that it is claimed the property was not worth to exceed $8,000. The injury lay in the fact that the cinders from the trains interfered with the process of making paper, the mill race was obstructed, a road torn up and the risk of fire increased. The amount of damages demanded was $40,000. The case went to the jury about 9 o'clock Thursday morning. A little after noon today a verdict was returned, giving Mrs.

There are now four railroad Y. M. C. A. branches in the State. They are at Logansport, Fort Wayne, Bright wood and Elkhart. Of these the Brightwood branch is the most prosperous. It was also reported that the movement which was started at Richmond to establish an association there is meeting with much success The matter of the meeting of a general committee at Buffalo, Feb. 8, 9 and 10, was discussed. This is said to be one of the most important committees in the history of the organization. It was appointed at Boston at the last general session, and instructed to confer relative to the relationship existing between the individual associations, the State associations and the national and international bodies. Dr. Joseph Swain, of the State University, a member of the State executive committee. is also a member of this committee. It is thought several other members of the Indiana committee will attend. Assistant Secretary Hanson, whose duties are principally with the college associations, reported on the condition of those associations. There are now two educasupplies gas to over 300 stoves and fur- tional institutions in the State, Purdue and the State University, employing secretaries. President H. M. Brown, of the Normal School there, offered to pay one-half of the salary of the secretary if the students would pay the rest. ## FIRE NEAR A THEATER.

Audience Dismissed and Panic Averted by the Attaches.

DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 17 .- Fire to-night destroyed the interior of the three upper floors of a four-story building at 184 Jefferson avenue, occupied by Schloss Bros. wholesale clothing manufacturers, entailing a loss estimated at $80,000. In adjoining stores east of Schloss Bros. are located Hiram Walker & Co., wholesale liquors, and E. H. Gates, wholesale hats and caps. | cat the new food. Both were damaged by smoke and water. The rear part of the Avenue Theater is on the opposite side of Jefferson street, and the fire became so fierce that Manager Lamkin dismissed the audience. When the announcement of the fire was made the crowd in the theater arose and for a moment it seemed as if a panic would follow. It was averted, however, by the calm de- and before long he got so he could cat anymeanor of the theater attaches, and everybody got out without an accident.

Grape-Nuts Set Them Right.

It is better to have a food epimedic in a family than an epidemic of sickness. A young lady out at Hibbing, Minn., tells about the way Grape-Nuts won her family. She says: "When recovering from typhoid fever my doctor ordered Grape-Nuts Breakfast Food. I gained four pounds the first week, and, as the package was kept on the table for me, the whole family started to
